

June 2011 Update

This month we established 9 biochar test plots on Lake Victoria in the village called Kunya. We trained them on application and utilization of biochar and also on making fuel briquettes from water hyacinth.

